Welcome to Saved By Grace! If you are a guest, it is our pleasure to have you worship with us today. We would be glad to answer any questions you may have and hope that you will return to visit us again.

Today's theme: "This Sunday presents a contrast between the Kingdom of God and the kingdom of the world. The Believers are to draw a sharp line of separation between God and the world. We have already drawn the line of demarcation when we are asked at Holy baptism: "Do you renounce the devil and all his works?" Every Sunday is to be a renewing of that line of separation. Today's contrast is, [serving] sin and [serving] God. The lessons teach us how we are to serve God and how the Lord whom we serve is disposed toward us." (The Sermon and the Propers, Vol. III by Fred Lindemann). May God bless us as we hear his Word today!

This morning's service is Elder led. We thank the elders for "stepping up to the plate" and conducting service, while Pastor is on the field trip to Peru.

Pastor is in the middle of the two week field trip to Peru with Board for World Outreach Administrator, Tom Heyn. You may follow the Peru field trip on the church's FaceBook page by going to the church's website,
