3. The Versicles, p. 109

4. The Psalm: Psalm 104:1-10, 33-35,

*Bless the LORD, O my soul! O LORD my God,
You are very great!*

You are clothed with splendor and majesty, covering Yourself with light as with a garment, stretching out the heavens like a tent.

He lays the beams of His chambers on the waters;

He makes the clouds His chariot; He rides on the wings of the wind;

He makes His messengers winds, His ministers a flaming fire.

He set the earth on its foundations, so that it should never be moved.

You covered it with the deep as with a garment; the waters stood above the mountains.

At Your rebuke they fled; at the sound of Your thunder they took to flight.

The mountains rose, the valleys sank down to the place that You appointed for them.

You set a boundary that they may not pass,
so that they might not again cover the earth.

*You make springs gush forth in the valleys;
they flow between the hills;*

I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while I have being.

May my meditation be pleasing to Him, for I rejoice in the LORD.

Let sinners be consumed from the earth, and let the wicked be no more!

Bless the LORD, O my soul! Praise the LORD!

ALL: Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever.

Amen.

5. The Lessons: The Passion of Our Lord according to St. Mark, the fourteenth chapter: And on the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb, His disciples said to Him, "Where will You have us go and prepare for You to eat the Passover?" And He sent two of His disciples and said to them, "Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him, and wherever he enters, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, Where is My guest room, where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?' And he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready; there prepare for us." And the disciples set out and went to the city and found it just as He had told them, and they prepared the Passover.

And when it was evening, He came with the twelve. And as they were reclining at table and eating, Jesus said, "Truly, I say to you, one of you will betray Me, one who is eating with Me." They began to be sorrowful and to say to Him one after another, "Is it I?" He said to them, "It is one of the twelve, one who is dipping bread into the dish with Me. For the Son of Man goes as it is written of Him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born."

And as they were eating, He took bread, and after blessing it broke it and gave it to them, and said, "Take; this is My body." And He took a cup, and when He had given thanks He gave it to them, and they all drank of it. And He said to them, "This is My blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. Truly, I say to you, I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. And Jesus said to them, "You will all fall away, for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.' But after I am raised up, I will go before you to Galilee." Peter said to Him, "Even though they all fall away, I will not." And Jesus said to him, "Truly, I tell you, this very night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times." But he said emphatically, "If I must die with You, I will not deny You." And they all said the same.

O Lord, have mercy on us.
♪Thanks be to You, O Lord.

6. Hymn: #281:1-2, 7 “O Love How Deep...”

7. Sermon Text/Theme: Hebrews 1: The Robe of Human Frame”

Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, but in these last days He has spoken to us by His Son, whom He appointed the heir of all things, through whom also He created the world. He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of His nature, and He upholds the universe by the word of His power. After making purification for sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name He has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

For to which of the angels did God ever say, “You are My Son, today I have begotten You”?

Or again, “I will be to Him a father, and He shall be to Me a son”?

And again, when He brings the firstborn into the world, He says, “Let all God’s angels worship Him.”

Of the angels He says, “He makes His angels winds, and His ministers a flame of fire.”

But of the Son He says, “Your throne, O God, is forever and ever, the scepter of uprightness is the scepter of Your kingdom. You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of gladness beyond Your companions.”

And, “You, Lord, laid the foundation of the earth in the beginning, and the heavens are the work of Your hands; they will perish, but You remain;
they will all wear out like a garment,
like a robe You will roll them up,
like a garment they will be changed.
But You are the same,
and Your years will have no end.”

And to which of the angels has He ever said, “Sit at My right hand until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet”?

Are they not all ministering spirits sent out to serve for the sake of those who are to inherit salvation?

Lord Jesus, You loved us with all You had. We give thanks that You became one of us, no matter the pain, so that You might redeem each of us as Your own. Hear us, Jesus Christ, for You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

O Lord God, You led Your ancient people through the wilderness and brought them to the promised land. Guide the people of Your church that following our Savior we may walk through the wilderness of this world toward the glory of the world to come; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen

I thank You, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have graciously kept me this day; and I pray that You would forgive me all my sins where I have done wrong, and graciously keep me this night. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me. Amen.

O God, from whom come all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works, give to us, Your servants, that peace which the world cannot give, that our hearts may be set to obey Your commandments and also that we, being defended from the fear of our enemies, may live in peace and quietness; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.
